THE NATIONAL LAW JOURNAL 2017

Signature Bank Scores High In Reader Ranking Survey By Leading National Legal Trade Journal

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: APRIL 4, 2017

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Signature Bank (Nasdaq:SBNY), a New York-based full-service commercial bank, announced today it was recently cited as one of the nation's best private banking services providers in the 2017 Best of The National Law Journal rankings. The 2017 Best of The National Law Journal is a reader survey of the top solutions providers spanning many areas that nationally serve the legal industry. Signature Bank ranked in the top three in this category for 2017.

The results stem from reader surveys The National Law Journal presents directly to its subscriber base.

“Our client base consists of many types of commercial clients, including professional services organizations of which law firms are a large part. The National Law Journal reader ranking citing Signature Bank as a top private banking services provider is a true testament to our abilities to cater to these types of professional services organizations. The Bank has consistently ranked high amongst lawyers as evidenced by the top placement we also earned in The New York Law Journal across similar categories. For the past three consecutive years (2014, 2015 and 2016), the Bank was voted Best Business Bank by The New York Law Journal's dedicated readers. We appreciate our legal clients taking time to recognize our emphasis on client care by voting for Signature Bank, and value their continued loyalty,” said Joseph J. DePaolo, co-founder, president and chief executive officer at Signature Bank.

In addition to being named Best Business Bank by The New York Law Journal (a sister publication of The National Law Journal) in the publication's seventh annual reader survey in September 2016, the Bank also ranked second in the Best Private Bank and Best Attorney Escrow Services categories.
