FACTS

WHAT DOES SIGNATURE BANK, SIGNATURE SECURITIES GROUP CORPORATION AND SIGNATURE FINANCIAL LLC, TOGETHER KNOWN AS “SIGNATURE,” DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and credit history
- Account balances and account transactions
- Payment history and checking account information

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons Signature chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
Signature Bank, Signature Securities Group Corporation and Signature Financial LLC

What we do

How does Signature protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Signature collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you
- open an account
- show your driver's license
- deposit money
- use your credit or debit card
- tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.
